FOREWORD

"The grass is greener right in your own backyard." How appropriate this cliché is to our beloved school, Geneva High!

Although we walk through these same corridors every day, we probably fail to realize that each trip offers new adventures.

Come with us as we follow our exchange students leading foreign friends through an exciting tour of our "back yard."

Oh, no — He did it again!

Katie — wake up!

He what?!

One

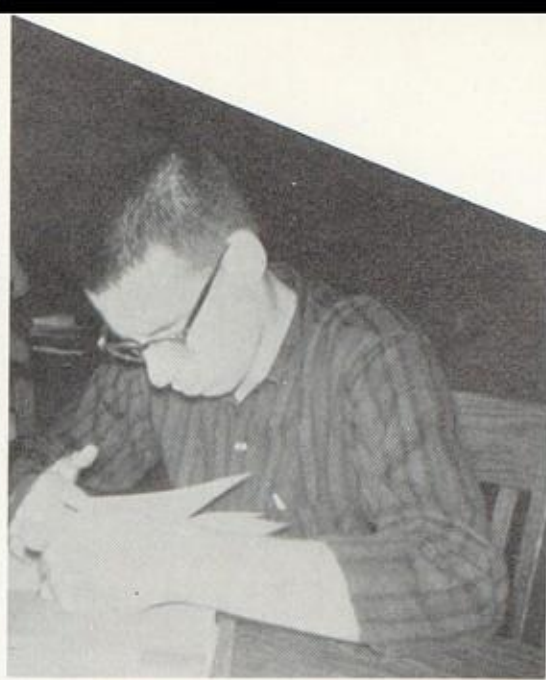

Now — Who was I supposed to give this note to?

J-O-H-N B-A-R-O

Jump, Spot, jump.

You rang?

Quick Glimpse . . .

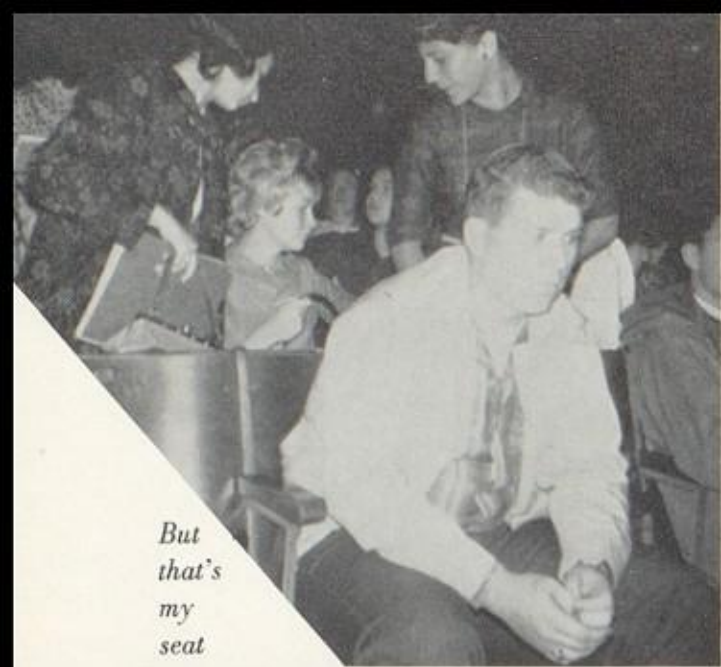

Kathy — What are you doing?

Now, to bring her out of the spell . . .

Ignore her and she'll go away.

But that's my seat

Don't tell anyone, but . . .

So where should you two be?

I'm definitely bored.

Shhhh — ugar!

I don't get it.

Joe, put that back!

LOVE!?

Just making a carbon copy, teach!

*Hey Moose,
you studying again!?!*

From a "D" to a "B"

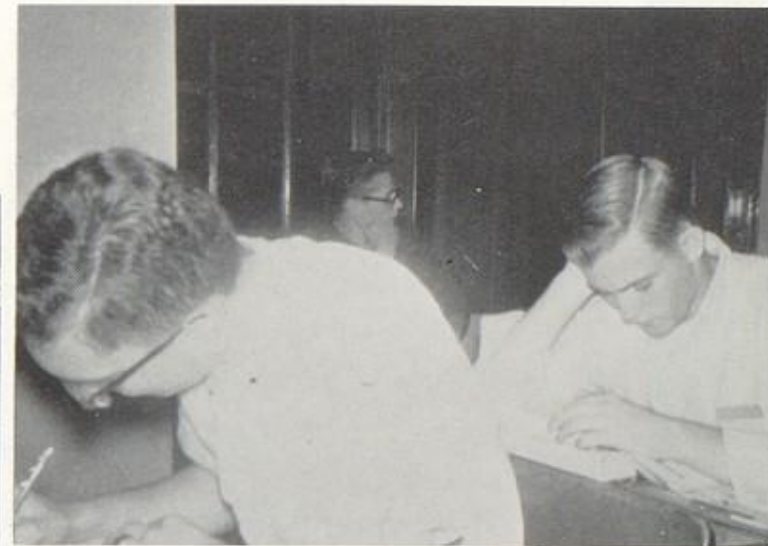

Cut that out!!!

First their presents . . .

. . . then mine.

Go ahead — take it!!

*Which would be better —
Playboy or Esquire*

Here I come.

Here comes Joe!

Why I oughta . . .

OK. Let's make it out the back door!

OK Kid, you've had it.

Now where is my research paper?

Which way to the boy's locker room?

It's here somewhere!

Ya — Ya — that's what you think!

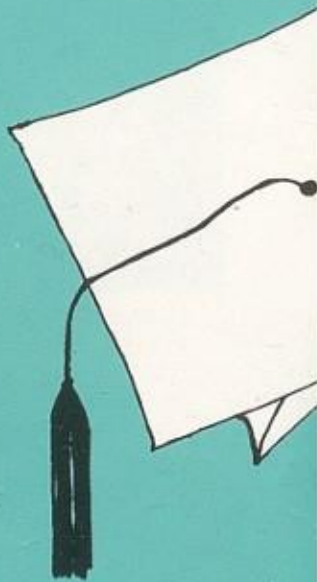

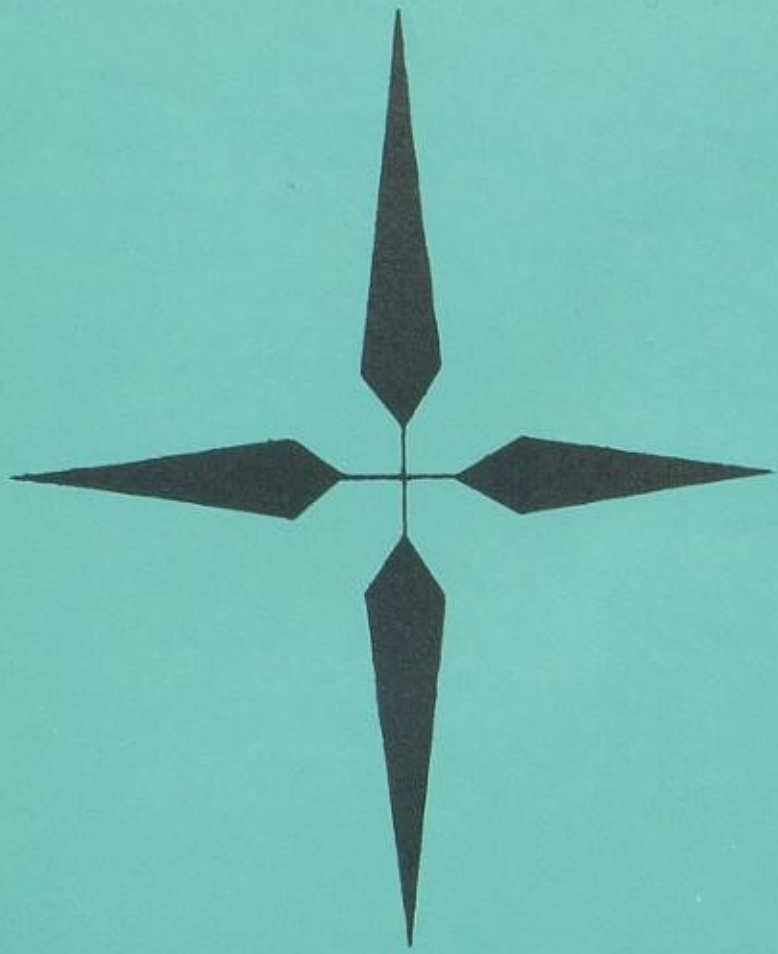

What, are you kidding me?

Is this English or Drivers Ed.?
